Accommodations

Finding the right place to live while studying at St. Peter's College is one of the most important things you need to do.

Permanent Accommodation

On-Campus Housing: College Residence

St. Peter's College has its own student residence: Severin Hall [see 3.1(A) for details]. If you plan to live in residence while studying at St. Peter's College, apply well in advance of your arrival as rooms fill up quickly. Accommodation in the college residence is not guaranteed. If you have reserved a room in the college residence, check for room information, move-in dates and policies in Section 3.1(A). If you arrive earlier than your move-in date, you will have to book a temporary accommodation prior to your arrival.

Off-Campus Housing

Students should be aware that it can be very difficult to find off-campus housing in the area of St. Peter's College. For those who do not wish to live in residence, the Humboldt housing registry (see link below) provides information and resources on available off-campus housing.

It may take awhile to find the right accommodations.

We strongly advise to provide yourself with the most time possible to find the right place to live.

Leases and Insurance

A lease and/or rental agreement is a legal document that states the tenant's rights and those of the owner. By signing a lease the renter indicates that he/she accepts and agrees with all of its provisions. The lease states the commencement of the tenancy, the expiry date, the rental rate, how often rent will be paid and whether or not the tenant will pay for utilities such as electricity.

Do not sign a lease until you have read and fully understand all of the terms. Always keep a copy of the lease. Landlord/tenant rights and responsibilities are outlined here:

<http://www.justice.gov.sk.ca/Information-for-Landlords-and-Tenants>

It is highly recommended that students insure their accommodation and belongings against theft, fire, and other damage by purchasing renters' insurance. Renters' personal property insurance can be purchased annually. Insurance companies are listed in the Yellow Pages of the telephone directory. Rates vary, so contact several insurance companies to find the best deal.
